NOTES; While the Chapmans lived on the Smith Farm, "little" Tommy Shull came to the barn looking for pigeons and saw Nellie. Her mother said, "don't you have anything to do with that boy."Nellie was 16 years old at the time. When she was 18 she started dating Tommy Shull and after she turned 21, she and Thomas were married. Nellie lived with both the Chapman and Shull families during the earl years. In August 1936, she fell down the stairs and was rushed to the Winchester Hospital with a kidney problem, both she and the baby she was carrying were saved. Later, while helping her mother can corn, she became ill and lost the baby girl. (Lilly)
