2. William McNeil Chapman, b. 25-Dec-1870 in Georgia, d. 10-May-1941 in Cleveland, Liberty Co., Texas, buried in Oak Shade Cemetary. R.D.Chapman in 1927 letter to D.A.R. said McNeil served in the Spanish American war as 1st Lt. in Co. B 2nd Texas Regiment. In 1898 the Stone Fort Rifles, an honorary military group in Nacogdoches, converted itself to Company B of the 2nd Texas Regiment, Infantry, and went off to the Spanish-American War. The Nacogdoches boys came back to Dallas November 1, 1898, and were mustered out about one month later. The military personnel of Company B, as reported in a Daily Sentinel issue for 1928, included McNeil Chapman, First Lieutenant and George S. King, Quartermaster Sergeant. Shortly after they returned, June 1, 1899, George S. King married McNeil Chapman's sister Lollie Dee Chapman. It is possible that George King was introduced to his future wife by her brother and George's fellow member of the Stone Fort Rifles. 4. Robert Duncan Chapman, b. 08-Dec-1839 in Houston Cnty., Georgia,<sup>46</sup> d. 07-Aug-1934 in Houston, Texas.<sup>47</sup> The census of 1840 found Robert Duncan in Houston Cnty., Ga (one year old); 1850 found him in Randolph Cnty., Ga; the 1860 Census of Randolph Cnty Ga. found him, as a clerk, in the home of his father, W.H.J. Chapman, and his mother, Temperance; the 1870 Census of Clay Cnty Ga. found him in Cotton Hill as a dry good merchant, age 30 and his wife, Eugenia, age 22 married with no children; and 1880 found him in Jefferson Cnty., Texas married with 3 children. The 1910 census found him in Dallas, Texas as the head of the household with his daughter, Martha and two grandchildren, Robert Leon Sonfield and George McNeil Sonfield. He served as Captain, Co. E 55th Ga. Regiment C.S.A. & Major Gen. Texas Division U.C.V.

On June 18, 1900, E.A. Blount (whose deceased daughter, Laura, had been married to his son, William McNeil) of Nacogdoches and W.J. Townsend, Sr. of Lufkin, filed a plot plan in Angelina County to establish the town site of Huntington on the Texas and New Orleans Railroad running North from Beaumont. On Saturday, June 22, they conducted a public auction of these town lots. Among the successful bidders were Capt. Robert Duncan Chapman and his brother, Dr. James Herschell Chapman.

Robert is regarded by some as "the father of Huntington." He became the first Postmaster when the job was created on July 23, 1900 and the first to build a store in Huntington; a mammoth general store. Robert's Store was described in the Lufkin Weekly Tribune in 1902 as having an "immense stock of everything you can think of, from a handle to a full stock of goods of any description. He is also, in connection with his son, at the head of the Huntington Piling and Tie Company. In connection with his mercantile business, he also has an undertaking establishment."

The March 28, 1928 edition of the Houston Post-Dispatch reported that Major General R.D. Chapman, commanding the Texas division of the United Confederate Veterans, was appointed by Governor Dan Moody to represent the state at the ceremony unveiling the statue of General Robert E. Lee and his "Old Traveler," at Stone Mountain Georgia, April 9. The statue of Lee and his famous white horse will be unveiled by the Stone Mountain Memorial Association of Atlanta, which invited both General Chapman and Governor Moody to attend. The governor, however, designated the Texas Confederate commander to represent the state.

The August 20, 1932 edition of the Dallas Journal carried a picture of General Chapman, who was then 93 years old, to report that he was in Dallas to visit relatives (his daughter, Mrs. Charles Desel, of Arlington) and speak at a joint meeting of the Dallas Confederate camps. He was quoted as believing that he is the oldest Confederate veteran in this part of the country and possibly in the United States. In addition to his long service in the veterans' organization he reported two other records of which he is proud. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South for eighty-three years and has held the degree of Master Mason for seventy-one years. For the last four years he has been commander of one of the three departments of the Confederate organization. General Chapman, a native of Houston County, Georgia, entered the War Between the States as a Sergeant Major of the First Georgia Regiment. Later as a First Lieutenant of the Fifty-Fifth Regiment he participated in Bragg's raid into Kentucky. At the Cumberland River crossing his Captain was killed and he became company commander.

After the raid he recrossed the Cumberland into Tennessee, where his company was captured near Cumberland Gap by Federal troops under command of General Burnside and he was sent to the Johnson Island prison. When his detachment was about to be captured, he buried his sword rather than give it up to the enemy. "I believe that sword, which was one of the most beautiful I have ever seen, is still in the ground there, on the Tennessee side of the Gap," he said. I tried first to break the blade, and when I couldn't, I rammed it past the hilt in the soft ground near a small branch. Then I took a pit of wood and pushed it eight inches below the level of the ground. I have often thought I would like to go back and see if I could find it." Five months later he escaped and returned to Georgia, where he organized a new command and reported to Savannah.

Hard pressed by Sherman's army, his command withdrew with other Confederate troops from Savannah through South Carolina and into North Carolina, where he led them in the last fight of the war at Bentonville, a few days before the surrender.

Twenty years ago (1912) the veteran was a Dallas resident, living in Oak Cliff. For several years he was gatekeeper at Fair Park. During his residence in Dallas he was active in Masonic and Confederate organizational activities.

In Houston, where he makes his home with a daughter, Mrs. George S. King, he is bailiff of the Harris County grand jury, a post he has held for fifteen years (since 1917). The war prevented his obtaining an education for a profession, he said. Toward "what you might say" is the "close of my life," he hopes to receive recognition for what he has accomplished - "a respectable place in life."

"But I believe I'll live to be 100 yet," he concluded. He married Eugenia Alice McNeil, married 21-Nov-1867 in Cuthbert, Randolph Ctny, Georgia.

<sup>104</sup> Robert Duncan Chapman, grandson of Wm., said in his 1927 letter to the DAR said Wm. was born in South Carolian. The 1880 Randolph Co., GA census found W.H.J. Chapman, son of Wm., and said his father was born in Virginia. Giles Chapman first settled his 1927 letter to the D.A.R., said his grandfather, William Chapman was born in S.C. in 1760 where he lived during the revolution and where he enlisted as a soldier of S.C. at the age of 19 in 1779. After the revolutionary war, about 1785 or 1789, William Chapman married Elizabeth Cowan and had the 7 children shown, the last of whom, W.H.J., was born in 1808 and was the father of Robert Duncan.

The Company pay roll slips show that William Chapman was a private in Captain Uriah Goodwyn's Company in the 3rd Regiment of South Carolina Continental Troops commanded by Col. William Thompson. Pay periods were 1 Mar to 1 July 1779, 1 July to 1 Aug 1779, 1 Aug to 18 Aug 1779 and 18 Aug to 1 Nov 1779. The pay slips for William Chapman, Sergeant in the same Company and Regiment were for the periods 1 Aug to 18 Aug 1779 and 18 Aug to 1 Nov 1779. Does this mean that the private was promoted to Sergeant 1 Aug 1779 and served at the same time from 1 Aug to 1 Nov 1779 or that there were two men with the same name in the same Company and Regiment? The Rolls give 1 Dec 1776 as the date of enlistment and say he was Sergeant 1 Aug 1779. Perhaps they were father and son. The Pay Roll of the Third Regiment for March 1780 shows it in Garrison at the Siege of Charleston in 1780.

Georgia records of bounty land for service in the Revolution show William Chapman was entitled to 250 acres and prayed for 287 1/2 acres of land in Franklin Co. on the certificate of Col. E. Clark, 24th December 1784. The record also show William Chapman was granted 287 1/2 acres in Franklin Co., bounded all sides vacant. Cut N. & S. by Indian creek, survey 155. Aug 2, 1784. p. 90.

Revolutionary War Bounty Land Grants by Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck, Genealogical Publishing Co., p. 97 reports the following: (i) William Chapman, S.C. 1 Oct. 1825. 200 acres, (ii) William Chapman, Va. Private, 17 Oct. 1825 200 acres, (iii) William Chapman, Jr. Ga. Refugee 15 Mar. 1784 250 acres, (iv) William Chapman, Sr. Ga, Refugee 10 Dec. 1784 250 Acres.

The first Federal census of Georgia now in existence is for 1820 which lists only one William Chapman who was in Wilkinson Co. which is two counties east of Houston County birthplace of the youngest son of W.H.J., Robert Duncan in 1839. If this was the father of W.H.J. he lived beyond 1813. The first tax digest found in Wilkes County, Ga court house was taken to replace the census of 1790 which was destroyed during the war of 1812. Capt. Wilson's district, received by John Talbot Esq. found William Chapman 1 1/2 polls, 1 slave, 200 acres in Wilkes Co. William Chapman and wife Elizabeth deeded 300 acres of land in Wilkes Co to Ann Milligan 20 Dec 1784. How does this relate to the 287 1/2 acres of the bounty grant in Franklin County? Franklin Co. was formed 1784 from Indian land ceded 1783, county seat Carnesville (30521). Wilkes Co. was formed 1777 from colonial Georgia, county seat Washington (30673).

The following is from Warren Co. Inferior Court, first minute book: 2-Jan-1804, Hannah Chapman applies for administration on estate of Laban Chapman and was appointed with William Chapman surety. Warren Co. was created 19-Dec-1793 from parts of Richmond, Columbia and Wilkes Counties and is located due west of Augusta 30-31 miles. William was also witness to a deed 1801 & 1853.
